Checklist for a Hassle-Free Move

---

Moving Timeline and Checklist

One month before your move:

- Arrange for moving your furniture and personal belongings either by hiring a moving company or renting a truck. Get estimates from several moving companies or truck-rental companies and be sure to obtain a hand truck (appliance dolly) if you're moving yourself.
- Gather moving supplies: boxes, tape, rope, and anything else you might need.
- Plan your travel itinerary and make transportation and lodging reservations in advance if you are driving to your new home. (Leave a copy with a friend or relative.)
- Some moving expenses are tax deductible, so you will want to save your moving-expense receipts (if the move is employment-related) for tax deductions, including meals, lodging, and gasoline. Record expenses incurred during your house-hunting trips.
- Develop a plan for packing, such as packing last the things you use the most. See page 51.
- Notify others of your new address: post office, charge accounts, subscriptions, relatives and friends, national and alumni organizations, church, mail order clubs (books, videos, catalogues), firms with which you have time payments, and your past employer to make sure that you receive W-2 forms and retirement-account information. Save your old address labels to speed up filling out change-of-address forms for your new address.
- Notify federal and state taxing authorities or any governmental agency necessary.

Two weeks before your move:

- Notify and get refunds from your present utilities: gas, electric, water, cable, and phone. Arrange for services at your new address. Notify long-distance phone company and arrange for service at your new address.
- Have your car serviced if you are driving a long distance to your new home.
- Recruit people to help you on moving day.
- Arrange for someone to take care of your pets and children during the move.
- Confirm moving company or rental-truck arrangements.

One day before your move:

- Keep moving materials separate so they don't get packed until you are finished.
- Pick up rental truck if you are moving yourself.
- Fill up your car with gas and check oil and tires.

Additional Moving-Checklist Items

- Decide what to move and what not to move. Possibly have a garage sale (extra cash and less to move). See “Tips on Having a Garage Sale” on the next page.
- Transfer your bank accounts. Your new bank will be happy to open your account by mail.
- Request records from doctors and dentists, including eye-glass prescriptions, dental x-rays, and vaccinations.
- Obtain your children’s school records to make for an easier transfer.
- Draw up a floor plan of where your furniture should be placed. This will help avoid confusion for you and your movers.
- Pay existing bills and close out local charge accounts.
- Arrange any special movers, such as may be necessary for an expensive piano or to break down and move a pool table or above-ground swimming pool.
- Cancel or transfer deliveries, newspaper, garbage collection, etc.
- Coordinate the transfer of gas, electric, water/sewer with the next occupant of your old home as well as with the previous owner of your new home, so as to avoid lapses in service and extra re-start expenses.
- Check on personal items that might be at the photo shop, in a safe deposit box, at a neighbor’s house, on lay-away, or in a repair shop (e.g., shoe repair, jewelry store, small-appliance repair, or dressmaker).
- Make arrangements for transporting your plants and pets. See pages 53 and 54.
- Save the phone book from your former city residence for tying up loose ends or for future correspondence.
- Transfer insurance policies or arrange for new policies.
- Gather all valuables, jewelry, important papers (birth certificates, deeds, documents) to take with you personally.
- Pack an arrival kit of necessities just in case you arrive before the mover, if applicable.
- Purchase moving insurance. Your mover’s liability for lost or damaged goods will not equal their replacement cost. Have valuable items appraised.
- Check with your attorney about your will, if crossing state lines.
- Ask for professional referrals if available (e.g., doctor, accountant, etc.)

Moving With Children

(Adapted from information at www.MoversGuide.com.)

If you think moving is hard on grown-ups, imagine what it's like for kids. They're starting over and trying to meet new friends while getting used to a new home, neighborhood, and school. Think about your children's specific needs before, during, and after the change and you'll make a big difference in how your children feel about the move and how they adjust afterwards.

BEFORE THE MOVE: PREPARING

- Give your children a chance to talk about their feelings and let them know how you are feeling too.
- Help them make a list of phone numbers and addresses of friends, relatives, and other important people. Knowing they can stay in touch with these people will be reassuring.
- Visit your new home and line up some activities for your child to be part of after the move; a sports team, music lessons, or a scouting troop.

DURING THE MOVE: REMEMBERING WHAT'S IMPORTANT

- Stay as upbeat and calm as you can. Your own mood will impact your children's moods.
- Involve your children in the packing. Older children can put their own belongings in boxes, and children of all ages will enjoy decorating the boxes containing their things.
- Stick to your routines. Have meals at the same times you normally do.
- Don't pack things that your children treasure. Take special blankets, favorite books, and other prized items in the car or on the plane with you.
- Help your children say goodbye to the important people in their lives. For their friends, a party is a fun way to celebrate the friendship.
- For many families, moving day means a long car trip or a cross-country flight. Prevent backseat blues and airline angst by adding travel fun and games to your plans.
- Allow your child to bring an album with pictures of their old home and friends. This will allow them to express their feelings and give you a chance to reassure them that it is natural to feel loss and initial discomfort with such a big change.

AFTER THE MOVE: GETTING SETTLED

- To make your new home seem more like home, hang your child's or family portrait in a prominent location or create a tabletop display of family photographs.
- Take pictures of the new home, neighborhood playmates, family members, and school. Start a new family album to show there is fun and family togetherness available at the new home.
- Don't spend too much time unpacking—at least not right away! In the first few days, take time to enjoy your new home with your family. Take walks and check out local restaurants.

Above all, listen. Be there when your children get home after the first day at their new schools, even if it means having to leave work early. Ask often how things are going, and take time to listen.

Moving Your House Plants

You can take your plants with you when you move without harming them. Here are some tips:

- ◆ Call your local U.S. Department of Agriculture to check on regulations if moving from one state to another. Many states have restrictions on certain kinds of plants to prevent importing bugs or pests that can destroy valuable cash crops in the state.
- ◆ A couple of weeks before you move, prune plants to facilitate packing. Consult a florist or a plant book for instructions.
- ◆ A week before you move, put your plants in a black plastic bag. Prior to placing your plant in the bag, place a bug/pest strip, conventional flea collar, or bug powder in the bag. Close the bag and place it in a cool area overnight. This will kill any pests on the plant or in the soil. Open the bag before loading your plants.
- ◆ The day before you move, put your plants in cardboard containers. Make sure that they are held in place by dampened newspaper or packing paper. Use paper to cushion the leaves and place a final layer of wet paper on top to keep them moist. Water the plants normally in summer, a little less in winter.
- ◆ On the day of your move, set the boxes aside and mark “DO NOT LOAD” so they won’t be taken on the moving van.
- ◆ On the day you leave, close boxes, punch air holes in the top, and load them in your car.
- ◆ When on the road, be careful where you park your car. Look for a shaded area in the summer and a sunny spot in the winter.
- ◆ Unpack the plants as soon as you can after arriving. Remove plants through the bottom of the box in order to avoid breaking their stems. Do not expose the plants to much sunlight at first. Let them get accustomed to more light gradually.
- ◆ If you must leave your plants behind, take cuttings. Put them in plastic bags with wet paper towels around them.
